MI Division

NMCI Legacy Applications

Transition Department of Navy Legacy Application and Database Policy

17 Aug Sept 2001
LtCol Stone Quillian
Maj Steve Kirtley
MIT, MI Division

Enterprise Desktop Seat Applications and Databases

- Overview
  - All Standard Applications & Databases in Standard Seat Are the Enterprise Applications and /or Databases for Those Functions
  - Must Have Express DON Permission to Deviate
  - Deviations Will Be Included in CLIN 23

Master Database Management

- DON CIO Will Establish Master Database for Information Resource Management
- Listing of All Legacy Applications and Databases
  - Designates the Enterprise Applications and Databases
  - Provides Web Access

Waivers

- Wavered Applications and Databases Will Also Be Listed in DON Master Database for Information Resource Management
- These Applications And/or Databases Will Only Be Included Under CLIN 23 of the NMCI Contract If NMCI Service Support Is Requested or Required

Waiver Criteria

- Required for War Fighting, War Fighting Support or Business Processes
- Can Be Certified to Operate on the NMCI,IT 21 And/or MCTN Networks
- Complies With the Implemented Navy and Marine Corps Firewall Policies
- Meets Implemented Internal NMCI, IT21 or USMC TDN Networks' Defense-In-Depth Security Standards

Minimum Funding Decision Criteria

- Quantified Savings/Cost Avoidance Supported (ROI)
  - Net Present Value (NPV) Calculations) or
  - Measures Which Quantify Performance Improvements
- Relevancy to Mission or Business Area Goals or Objectives
- Risk

Migration To Standard Application

- Should Occur Within Three Years of the Activity's NMCI AOR
  - DON Knows Multiple Applications May Be Required to Meet Operational and Mission Requirements
  - Applications Will Be Evaluated for Designation As Enterprise Using Waiver Criteria

Continued Evaluation

- Applications and Databases Will Be Evaluated Periodically for Continued Support
  - Apps Under Development Will Be Evaluated Using Same Criteria
  - Applies to ALL DON Networks
    - IT 21
    - MCTN